Kids Eat Free deal returns to Subway® this Easter

One free kids' meal (4" Sub, snack, and drink) available with the purchase of any Footlong Sub in participating restaurants nationwide

19th March 2024 – Subway®'s popular Kids Eat Free deal will be returning to participating restaurants across the UK for the Easter school holidays, from Monday 25th March to Sunday 14th April.

One free Kids Meal, which includes a 4" Sub, a snack, and a drink, will be redeemable through purchasing any full price Footlong Sub, at participating Subway restaurants.

Having first launched during October half term last year to help families navigate the cost-of-living crisis, Subway is bringing back the popular value-for-money offer for the Easter term break.

The Kids Eat Free deal aims to help families enjoy days out together, without having to worry so much about the cost of feeding the whole family.

Marketing Director at Subway UK Kirstey Elston, stated:

"We're delighted to be bringing back our Kids Eat Free offer – the deal is all about supporting families and helping them save money, whilst they enjoy quality time out together during the school holidays!"

The Kids Eat Free offer is part of Subway's ongoing commitment to support customers throughout the year with great value, which also includes the restaurant chain adding three 6" Saver Subs options to its menu, with the Subs priced from £2.99 each.

Subway's Kids Eat Free deal will be available in participating restaurants across the UK, from Monday 25th March to Sunday 14th April 2024.
