

Subway® Launches Gift Cards in the UK

Just in time for the festive season, physical and digital gift cards offer guests more ways to enjoy Subway with added convenience and flexibility

LONDON, 23rd October 2025: Subway® today introduced digital and physical gift cards in the UK*, marking another major milestone as part of the brand's digital guest experience. This new offering reinforces Subway's commitment to delivering greater convenience, flexibility, and new ways for guests to engage with the brand—whether in-app or in-restaurant.

Available ahead of the festive gifting season, physical gift cards are stocked at participating restaurants and digital cards can be purchased instantly via the Subway website. Guests will be able to store digital gift cards in compatible mobile wallets—making spending and gifting seamless and secure.

Nicola Hayden, Director of EMEA Digital Experience at Subway, commented: “We’re always exploring new ways to enhance the guest experience – whether through gift cards, self-serve kiosks or in-app offers for our Subway Rewards members – and to support franchisee profitability. With physical and digital gift cards, guests get more convenience and flexibility, making it easier than ever to enjoy their favourite Subway meal.”

This launch builds on Subway's broader digital expansion across EMEA, with over 500 restaurants now digitally enabled to deliver a connected restaurant experience. These locations feature self-serve kiosks, dynamic digital menu boards, mobile ordering, and kitchen display systems—all designed to elevate the guest experience and streamline operations for franchisees and their teams.
