

USGA Announces Tee Times for 120th U.S. Women's Amateur Championship

Defending champion Gabriela Ruffels paired with recent North & South Amateur champion Rachel Kuehn and Women's Western Amateur champion Brigitte Thibault in marquee group

ROCKVILLE, Md. (July 30, 2020) – The United States Golf Association (USGA) today announced tee times for the first two rounds of the 120th U.S. Women's Amateur Championship on Monday, Aug. 3 and Tuesday, Aug. 4, at Woodmont Country Club's North Course. The North Course will play at 6,561 yards and par 72 for the championship.

The U.S. Women's Amateur consists of 36 holes of stroke play on Aug. 3 and 4, after which the 132-player field will be reduced to the low 64 scorers. There will be six rounds of match play at Woodmont, starting Aug. 5. The championship is scheduled to conclude with a 36-hole final on Sunday, Aug. 9, beginning at 7:30 a.m. EDT.

About the USGA

The USGA is a nonprofit organization that celebrates, serves and advances the game of golf. Founded in 1894, we conduct many of golf's premier professional and amateur championships, including the U.S. Open and U.S. Women's Open. With The R&A, we govern the sport via a global set of playing, equipment, handicapping and amateur status rules. The USGA campus in Liberty Corner, New Jersey, is home to the Association's Research and Test Center, where science and innovation are fueling a healthy and sustainable game for the future. The campus is also home to the USGA Golf Museum, where we honor the game by curating the world's most comprehensive archive of golf artifacts. To learn more, visit usga.org.
