

11th Annual Beaver Creek Wine & Spirits Festival Returns Aug. 10-13

Beaver Creek, Colo., July 18, 2017— The much anticipated wine, spirit and culinary event of the summer, the 11th Annual Beaver Creek Wine & Spirits Festival presented by Wine Spectator, returns Aug. 10-13, nestled in the raw beauty of the Rocky Mountains of Beaver Creek, Colorado. This event incorporates culinary excellence with Beaver Creek's longstanding traditions, outdoor adventures, health and wellness.

Each event has a specialized theme and a location that pairs perfectly. The weekend starts off on Thursday evening with a special kick-off event, Whiskey Wranglers at the Beaver Creek Rodeo – a whiskey tasting with a touch of the wild, wild, west. Friday's festivities begin with Mountaintop Fitness Classes and Breakfast at Spruce Saddle. An invigorating outdoor spin, yoga, and pilates session is followed by gourmet continental breakfast. The Friday Afternoon Club Social offers a casual alpine summer setting with live music and wine tasting at the Plaza Pavilion in Beaver Creek Village. Cap off the evening with Paired with Patron: A Cigar Tasting Event at the Smoking Lounge at the Ritz-Carlton Bachelor Gulch. Join Chef Joly of Mirabelle Restaurant for a new Farm-to-Table Dinner, with ingredients sourced from within 150 miles.

Embark on the Hike & Lunch: Guided Gourmet Experience on Saturday for a memorable hike on Beaver Creek Mountain through aspen groves and meadows of wildflowers all above Beaver Creek Village guided by experts from Beaver Creek's Hiking Center and culminating with an outdoor, wine-paired lunch at the lush Creekside Park.

The weekend's star event, Saturday's 11th Annual Grand Tasting, is a celebration of the weekend's highlighted dishes and drinks with mouth-watering samples, music and drink. The Beaver Creek Wine & Spirits Festival hosts 17 events in total expanding over four days. Tickets can be purchased online at BeaverCreek.com/wine.

Pinot Noir with a Distinct Sense of Place 12 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Visionary Winemaker Jayson Woodbridge always had a desire to make Pinot Noir. In 2006, he contacted the owners of historic Stanly Ranch, in the Carneros appellation of Napa to craft his first Pinot Noir. Woodbridge's first vintage of Cherry Pie Stanly Ranch garnered critical acclaim and was noted as "a wine not to be ignored," by Robert Parker. The success of the first bottling lead to two additional single vineyard Pinot Noirs – Huckleberry Snodgrass from the Russian River Valley and Rodger's Creek from the Sonoma Coast. Join us as we explore the nuances of Pinot Noir from one of the most acclaimed winemaker in Napa Valley.

Best of Piedmont 2:30 p.m. - 4 p.m.

One hundred years after the creation of the Viberti winery, the family's connection to their beloved land of Barolo and its fine red wines remains constant. Today, under the direction of Claudio Viberti, the winery produces varietally accurate, elegantly-structured wines with fresh fruit aromas, bold tannins, and vibrant acidity that are approachable upon release, yet reward extensive cellaring.

Experience the very best of Piedmont with a selection of their exquisitely crafted DOCG 'Buon Padre' Barolo dating back to 1983 poured from limited release 3L bottles. The event will be capped off with a special tasting of Viberti's prized single-vineyard Barolo Riserva Bricco Delle Viole 2010 & 2007.
