STOWE, Vt. – Nov. 6, 2017 –New this winter, Stowe Mountain Resort is now included on the Epic Pass and the Vail Resorts collection of world-class ski experiences. The Epic Pass offers unlimited, unrestricted access to Stowe Mountain Resort, along with the best resorts in North America. Purchasing the 2017-2018 Epic Pass before Sunday, Nov. 19 ensures that skiers and snowboarders will lock in the best season-long value. As Vail Resorts' first East Coast ski resort, Stowe is also the newest resort among 45 of the world's most iconic mountain destinations to be offered with the Epic Pass – which includes unlimited, unrestricted access to Vail, Beaver Creek, Breckenridge, Park City, Whistler Blackcomb and more, as well as limited access to 30 resorts in Europe. After Sunday, Nov. 19, season passes will no longer be available for purchase for the winter season.

"We're thrilled to welcome Epic Pass holders this winter," said Stowe Vice President and General Manager, Bobby Murphy. "As Vail Resorts' first eastern destination, we're excited for the opportunity to provide guests access to the East Coast's most iconic skiing. Stowe offers incomparable service, the greatest variety of skiable terrain in New England, along with a purpose-built mountain area for beginners and intermediates on Spruce Peak," Murphy adds.

Stowe Mountain Resort completed a $500 million dollar master plan in 2016, which includes the Children's Adventure Center. The new Adventure Center is a state-of-the art facility that sets a new standard in the industry for kids and family amenities. Located at Spruce Peak, Stowe's Adventure Center is home to all children's programs. From beautiful daycare facilities to ski and ride programs for kids ages three and up, the new Adventure Center has significantly advanced and expanded luxurious family amenities and services at the resort. The building also includes new shops, an Indoor Climbing Center and family-friendly dining in The Canteen restaurant. Additional highlights include an outdoor ice skating rink, pedestrian plaza, new snowmaking, and lifts.

Stowe Mountain Resort is one of the original ski resorts in the U.S. and an internationally renowned winter destination. With majestic Mount Mansfield and Spruce Peak, Stowe offers a multitude of experiences in addition to skiing and snowboarding, such as ice skating, climbing, snowshoeing, world-class dining, shopping, spas and more. Stowe's historic village, combined with Vermont's most spectacular landscape creates the quintessential New England getaway. Guests are invited to purchase season passes and start planning their next winter vacations at EpicPass.com.
