Vail Snow Days Returns December 8-10

VAIL, Colo. – Nov. 6, 2017 – The Greyboy Allstars will headline Vail Snow Days, Vail Mountain's signature kick-off event to the winter season. Eminence Ensemble will open. Bud Light presents The Greyboy Allstars and Eminence Ensemble on Saturday, December 9, 2017.

"Vail Snow Days sets the tone for the season and is one of the most iconic winter events at Vail," said Phil Metz, Senior Director of Marketing at Vail Mountain. "The overall schedule of events for Snow Days is more robust this year, and we believe the mix of entertainment opportunities, as well as family-friendly activities, will bring a new life and energy to Vail and help us kick off the season in style."

The Vail Snow Days concert is free of charge and will be held at Solaris in Vail Village. Gates open at 5:30 p.m. and the show starts at 6:00 p.m. The schedule of activities for Vail Snow Days 2017 will also include the return of the sponsor expo village, après parties, and family skating 'n s'mores.

Vail Snow Days is the first of multiple signature events Vail will host during the 2017-18 season and adds to the first 30 days at the resort. Skadi Vail, a women's-only ski and snowboard fest, and Vail Holidays, a family holiday celebration, will both return this winter season.

The Greyboy Allstars

The Greyboy Allstars came together in 1994, when the individual members were asked to perform at a record release party. The guys so enjoyed playing together that they decided to continue on as a band.

The Greyboy Allstars started playing weekly at San Diego's now defunct Green Circle, weekends at San Francisco's Elbo Room and various clubs throughout Europe. By playing danceable boogaloo music within the soul jazz genre, they became a national and international phenomenon.

The lineup of the band remains nearly the same as it did on their breakthrough, Denson on horns and vocals, Robert Walter on keyboards, Elgin Park (aka Michael Andrews) on guitars and vocals, and Chris Stillwell on bass. Original drummer Zak Najor has passed the baton on to Aaron Redfield, an old friend of the band and frequent collaborator.

Eminence Ensemble

While Eminence Ensemble's musicianship impresses most, it's the band's ability to bend genres so fluidly (specifically prog rock, funk and soul), meticulously and with purpose that sends fans on a unique journey at each show. The 6-piece Denver-based band heads down the rabbit hole with soulful vocals and playful lyrics that reach new levels of transcendence. No Eminence Ensemble show is like another and no fan leaves unscathed.
