

Help Colorado Mountain Express Fill the Van during its 20th Annual Food Drive on Saturday, Nov. 18

- The 2016 Fill the Van drive collected nearly $7,000 in cash and more than 40,000 pounds in food donations for Colorado food banks
- Donations from parent company's headquarters to benefit two new nonprofits – the Louisville Community Food Share and the Denver Rescue Mission

EDWARDS, Colo., Nov. 8, 2017 – Colorado Mountain Express (CME) will host its 20th Annual “Fill the Van” food drive on Saturday, Nov. 18, when thousands of pounds of food will be collected for food banks across Colorado’s mountain communities. CME vans will be parked outside of select grocery stores throughout Summit County, Eagle County and the Roaring Fork Valley accepting food donations Nov. 13-17.

As part of the joint fundraising effort between Colorado Mountain Express, Vail Resorts EpicPromise, the Vail, Avon, and Eagle Police Departments, the Eagle County Sheriff’s Department and 9NEWS’ 9Cares Colorado Shares statewide food drive, the collected donations will remain in the county in which they were donated. Beneficiaries include the Family & Intercultural Resource Center (FIRC) and Father Dyer Food Bank in Summit County, Vail Valley Salvation Army, and Lift Up in the Roaring Fork Valley.

Vail Resorts, CME’s parent company, is also participating in Fill the Van at its Broomfield headquarters as part of the Company’s EpicPromise program. As the Company’s social responsibility and environmental stewardship program, EpicPromise enables Vail Resorts to preserve and care for its communities and the natural environments surrounding its resorts. New this year, donations from Vail Resorts’ headquarters in Broomfield will benefit the Louisville Community Food Share and the Denver Rescue Mission’s turkey drive, A Turkey on Every Table.

“For two decades CME has been filling local food bank pantries and supporting people in need,” said John Dawsey, vice president and general manager of CME. “We’re looking forward to another successful drive this year and are excited about the opportunity to support two new wonderful nonprofits, the Louisville Community Food Share and Denver Rescue Mission, with this year’s donations.”

Collection sites for food and monetary donations include:

Summit County

- Breckenridge – City Market
- Dillon – City Market

Eagle County

- Avon – City Market
- Avon – Wal-Mart
- Eagle – City Market
- Edwards – Village Market
- Vail – City Market
- Vail – Safeway

Roaring Fork Valley

- Aspen – City Market
- Glenwood Springs – City Market

In addition to Saturday’s collections, Eagle County police departments and emergency responders will visit local schools to collect donations on Friday, Nov. 17. Teachers and school administrators set forth a challenge to each grade to collect the most food.
