

Newly Renovated Grand Summit Hotel, A RockResort Welcomes Chuck Randles as Senior Director of Lodging Operations and General Manager

Park City, Utah – April 5, 2018 – The Grand Summit Hotel, A RockResort, is pleased to announce the appointment of Chuck Randles to senior director of lodging operations for Park City and general manager of the hotel. With more than 10 years of extensive knowledge and experience in the hospitality industry, Randles will be responsible for all operations at the newly-renovated property set at the base of Park City Mountain. He will also oversee the neighboring Silverado Lodge and Sundial Lodge, as well as the opening of the new Lift and Apex properties, which are currently under construction.

“Chuck has been an instrumental team member for our lodging operations in Keystone and I’m looking forward to the fresh perspective he’ll bring to the Grand Summit,” said Ron Neville, Vail Resorts’ vice president of hospitality. “Chuck’s extensive experience and expertise will undoubtedly benefit guests and owners alike as we welcome them to the newly renovated property.”

Having spent more than 12 years with Vail Resorts, Randles has amassed a wide range of experience, most recently serving as the General Manager for Keystone Resort Property Management where he was responsible for more than 650 rental properties, 250 homecare and rent-by-owner properties and as many as 43 community associations. Prior to that, Randles held various roles in both guest-facing and support positions, leading the front office and property management for Keystone Resort Property Management and as a staff accountant for the Company.

Randles is originally from Rockford, Ill. and graduated from the University of Iowa with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance. He appreciates time with friends and family in the great outdoors, watching live sporting events or concerts, and enjoying great food. He’s looking forward to immersing himself in the Park City community.
