

Beaver Creek Resort to Open Early for the 2019-20 Winter Season on Saturday, Nov. 23

•Last chance to secure an Epic Pass is Nov. 24

BEAVER CREEK, Colo. – Nov. 19, 2019 –For the second year in a row, Beaver Creek Resort will open early for the 2019-20 ski and snowboard season, thanks to the dedication and hard work of its snowmaking and mountain operations teams. Beaver Creek will open Saturday, Nov. 23, four days ahead of its scheduled Nov. 27 opening date. The resort will offer more than 70 acres of terrain accessed by two lifts starting at 9 a.m. With Beaver Creek's early opening, Epic Pass holders will have access to skiing and riding at Beaver Creek, Vail, Breckenridge and Keystone in Colorado.

"I am thrilled Beaver Creek Resort will open for the 2019-20 season four days ahead of schedule," said Nadia Guerriero, Beaver Creek Resort vice president and chief operating officer. "This early opening would not have been possible without the hard work of our mountain operations teams. We are also excited to debut our newly renovated Children's Ski School, remodeled village, and to offer our guests an amazing and memorable early season experience."

Beginning Saturday, Nov. 23, skiers and snowboarders can enjoy skiing and riding on more than 70 acres of beginner and intermediate terrain accessible via Centennial Express Lift (#6) and Haymeadow Express Gondola (#1). The resort will offer beginner terrain on Haymeadow and intermediate terrain on Gold Dust. Opening day festivities will include a special Cookie Time in the morning.

For those looking to grab a bite to eat on the mountain, Spruce Saddle and the Ice Cream Parlour will open for the season with daily operations beginning Saturday, Nov. 23.

Beaver Creek Ski & Snowboard School

Beginning Saturday, Nov. 23, the Beaver Creek Ski & Snowboard School will begin offering full-day group lessons, as well as half-day and full-day private lessons for guests of all ages and skill levels.
