BROOMFIELD, Colo. – March 21, 2022 – Today, Vail Resorts launched its 2022/23 Epic Pass products as the company makes bold investments in its employees, its mountain resorts and its Pass Holders.

“We will not waver in our commitment to continuously reinvest in the ski and ride experience with the goal of creating an Experience of a Lifetime for our Pass Holders,” said Ryan Bennett, chief marketing officer of Vail Resorts. “We are making bold investments to ensure we have a fully staffed team of passionate, engaged employees and adding 21 new lifts across 14 of our resorts to help skiers and riders get up and around the mountains faster and easier. We are committed to providing an amazing value and experience to our Pass Holders.”

Vail Resorts recently announced an incremental $175 million investment in its employees, which includes increasing its minimum wage to $20 per hour across each of its 37 North American resorts, and raising hourly wages an average of 30 percent. This is in addition to over $300 million the company is investing in the mountain experience next season, with 21 new lifts across 14 resorts to reduce lift line wait times.

Epic for Everyone: Epic Pass Provides the Best Value in the Industry

Vail Resorts is committed to making its passes accessible by providing incredible value, flexibility and choice, in exchange for a non-refundable advance commitment. Skiers and riders who want the lowest price and exclusive benefits can purchase passes now.

All passes come with additional benefits, including:

- Buddy Tickets: Pass Holders who purchase early will receive 10 Buddy Tickets and six Ski with a Friend tickets to bring friends and family to join the ski and ride experience at a significant discount.
- Epic Mountain Rewards: Pass Holders receive 20 percent off on-mountain food and beverage, lodging, group ski and ride school lessons, equipment rentals and more. Pass Holders also receive summer benefits at eligible resorts, including Summer Scenic Gondola rides, 20 percent off summer food, lodging, bike rentals and golf.
- NEW – Epic FlexPay: Pass Holders now have access to easy monthly installments with Epic FlexPay, powered by Uplift. New for the 2022/23 season, the deferred payment option includes zero down payment, zero interest, and if purchased early, zero payments until September^[1].
- Epic Coverage: Passes are non-refundable except through Epic Coverage, which provides refunds for certain resort closures and personal events such as job loss, injury or illness. Epic Coverage is provided at no additional cost and Pass Holders should review the Epic Coverage Terms and Conditions. Lift tickets are fully refundable but do not provide the value or flexibility of passes.

Pass	Launch Price	Benefits
Epic Pass	$841	Provides unlimited, unrestricted access to 40 resorts – including Vail, Beaver Creek, Breckenridge, Keystone, Crested Butte, Park City, Whistler Blackcomb, Heavenly, Northstar, Kirkwood, Stowe, Stevens Pass and more. With additional partner resorts like Telluride, the Epic Pass unlocks access to more than 80 resorts.
Epic Local Pass	$626	Provides unlimited, unrestricted access to 29 resorts coast to coast – including Breckenridge and Keystone, as well as holiday-restricted access to resorts like Park City, Heavenly and Stowe, and 10 days total to use at Vail, Beaver Creek and Whistler Blackcomb.

Epic Lift Upgrade: $300 Million Investment in the Guest Experience

In the 2022/23 season, guests can look forward to 21 new lifts across 14 resorts coast to coast, plus new lift-served terrain in Keystone's Bergman Bowl and an expanded restaurant, also at Keystone. Epic Lift Upgrade is Vail Resorts' biggest single-year investment into the ski and ride experience. The projects were designed to reduce lift line wait times and make getting on and around the mountains easier and faster.

Learn more about these projects below or by viewing @EpicPass Instagram Stories at 8 a.m. MT today, March 21 for a preview of each exciting project.

West:

- Whistler Blackcomb will upgrade the 6-person Creekside Gondola to a high-speed 10-person gondola, which will significantly improve wait times, and replace the Big Red Express with a high-speed 6-person chair to increase uphill capacity by nearly 30%.
- Northstar will upgrade the Comstock Lift to a new high-speed 6-person chair to reduce wait times and increase uphill capacity by nearly 50%.
- Heavenly guests will take in the spectacular view from a newly upgraded North Bowl Lift, a high-speed 4-person chair to reduce combined ride time of Boulder and North Bowl lifts.

Rocky Mountains:

- Keystone is enhancing Bergman Bowl with 16 new trails, a new 6-person chair, and expanded access to 555 acres of terrain. Additionally, foodies will appreciate a 6,000 square foot expansion of its Outpost restaurant.
- Vail will introduce the Sun Down Lift, a new high-speed 4-person chair to reduce wait times at Chair 5 and allow skiers to more conveniently access trails in Sun Down Bowl, and the lift in Game Creek Bowl will be upgraded to a new high-speed 6-person lift, which will increase capacity by nearly 50%.
- Breckenridge is replacing Rip's Ride with a high-speed 4-person chair at Peak 8, to enhance the beginner ski and ride school experience, increase uphill capacity by nearly 70%, and make it easier for guests to move out of the area.

- Park City guests can look forward to Silverlode being upgraded to a new high-speed 8-person chair, increasing uphill capacity by 20% and reducing wait times, as well as the new Eagle Lift, a high-speed 6-person chair with a new alignment and mid-station, replacing the existing lift, significantly reducing crowding and wait times, and improving the guest experience.

East:

- Vail Resorts welcomes three new Pittsburgh-area resorts to its portfolio: Seven Springs, Hidden Valley and Laurel Mountain. These three resorts will be accessible on the Epic Pass, Epic Local, Northeast Value Pass, Epic Day Pass and more.
- Stowe is adding a high-speed 6-person Mountain Lift, which replaces a fixed-grip triple to increase uphill capacity by 100% and eliminate the steep hike to the base of the current lift.
- Mount Snow will replace two fixed-grip triples, the Sundance and Tumbleweed lifts, with a new high-speed 6-person lift that will increase uphill capacity by nearly 70%. Additionally, the current 14-minute ride time will be decreased by 30% when the Sunbrook Lift is upgraded to a high-speed 4-person chair serving currently underutilized terrain.
- Attitash is replacing the East & West Double-Double with a fixed-grip 4-person chair to improve reliability and enhance overall guest experience.
- Jack Frost and Big Boulder are getting five lift upgrades, with the replacement and consolidation of multiple lifts at both resorts to improve reliability and enhance the experience.
- Boston Mills and Brandywine guests can look forward to two new fixed-grip 4-person chairs to enhance reliability and overall guest experience.
